Peniel Concert Choir, founded in June of 1986 with 20 members, is the only Korean American Concert choir in the entire Northeast United States. Just as the word “Peniel” signifies the face of God, the repertoires of the choir mostly consists of Sacred Music. Peniel Concert Choir has performed numerous concerts in New York, New Jersey, Atlanta, Philadelphia, Canada and Korea in the past 25years, including performances of Handel’s Messiah, Vivaldi’s Gloria and Masses by Mozart, Schubert, Gounod, Puccini, Ramirez and Beethoven. The Choir has performed in places such as Carnegie Hall, Colden Center at Queens College, St.Paul’s Chapel at Columbia University, John Harms Center, Cami Hall, Atlanta Symphony Hall, Seoul Art Center in Korea, Roy Thomson Hall in Toronto, Alice Tully Hall and Avery Fisher Hall. The Choir has also participated in numerous choral festivals and has held 52 regular concerts and 38 guest performances. This concert marks it’s 28th performance of Handel’s Messiah. Peniel Concert Choir is a non-profit organization with founder Mr. Byung Choun Lee serving currently as music director and conductor.
